FLOODS IN ITALY.
THREE COMMUNES DISAPPEAR.
(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

BERGAMO, December 2.
Three communes have disappeared. The floods released a dam and as a result of the disaster five power stations were destroyed and six hundred lives lost. The damage is estimated at several hundred million lire. A vast area of rich agricultural land has been desolated. The disaster was due to abnormal rains. The river Dezzo overflowed and simultaneously the dam burst. The flood is thirty feet in depth. Rescue operations are very difficult owing to the interruption of all means of communication.

OBITUARY.
MR. WILLIAM STEWART.

Following a week's illness, Mr. William Stewart of the China Light and Power Coy., passed away, to the regret of a wide circle of friends, at the French Hospital on Sunday morning. Death was due to heart failure.

A resident here of 29 years standing, the late Mr. Stewart had been among other things, a keen Volunteer, a cricket marksmen and a past President of the Kowloon Cricket Club whose flag was flown at half mast yesterday out of respect for his memory. He was also a well-known freemason.

Mr. Stewart came to Hongkong as saw-miller for the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company. He was regarded as a fine judge of timber and eventually after 16 years service at the Dock embarked upon business on his own account and prospered as such until the war intervened. Recently he joined the service of the China Light and Power Company. Born in Scotland on the 9th May, 1867, he was 56 years of age at the time of his death. He is survived by Mrs. Stewart, who for many years has resided in Gourock, Scotland, by a son who is with the Dock Company, a daughter wife of Mr. R. Lapsley, also of the Dock Company, and by other children who are at home.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place yesterday afternoon at the Protestant Cemetery, Happy Valley. The chief mourners were Mr. Charles Stewart (son) and Mr. R. Lapsley (son-in-law) and among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. D. Purves, Messrs. D. Gow, W. J. Ratsey, J. W. H. Taylor, D. McL. Neilson, C. Bond, W. H. Kelly, A. M. Simpson, P. Oliver, D. Keith, J. N. R. Allan, J. M. Smyth, J. H. Kynoch, W. Greig, J. B. Hamilton, D. Steel, T. B. Mackinnon, G. H. White, J. Hand, R. J. Brown, R. E. Nicholls, Armstrong, E. W. White, J. P. Robinson, C. R. Crispin, N. Stephenson, W. Cockram, Brown and A. W. E. Davidson.

Wreaths were sent by the following:

Wife, Mary and Robert, Angus, Henry and Jean, Charlie, Grandchildren, St. Andrew's Society, K.D.R.C., Betty and Betty Jean, Mr. and Mrs. D. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. E. BROKEN NECK.
MAN STILL ALIVE AND HAPPY.

Among the patients at the Portsmouth Infirmary is Alfred Davis, who has been living for the past sixteen years with a broken neck. He is able to go about in a wheeled chair, and he appears to be quite happy, but requires careful nursing.

Davis fell from a scaffold and broke his neck. He has been an inmate of the ward for incurables at the Westminster Hospital ever since and has been transferred to Portsmouth while the Westminster Hospital undergoes repairs.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
RUMOURED LATIN BLOC.
(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

ROME, December 2.
The report that Italy Spain and the South American republics have agreed to withdraw from the League of Nations is semi-officially stated to be without foundation.

A Reuter message of November 29, stated—
Madrid, correspondent learns from a source that during the visit of the Spanish Sovereign to Rome the question of the formation of a Latin bloc was discussed, which might result in Spain, Italy and several South American republics withdrawing from the League of Nations.

BOXING TOURNAMENT.
PRESENTATION TO KING'S REGIMENT.

On Saturday night the Hongkong Boxing Association held their second tournament of the season, the City Hall being packed.

The first contest, for middle-weights between Stoker, P.O. Young H.M.S. Diomedes and L. Cpl. Drennan, King's Regt. produced a fine scrap.

The first round saw both contenders going strong, with Drennan taking the offensive and getting in a couple of hard body blows.

The going in the second round just saved Young, who received severe punishment, Drennan out-fighting him. Young made a wonderful recovery in the third round. The next round saw Drennan taking the aggressive, the stoker receiving heavy punishment.

The fifth round witnessed sharp fighting by both men, the boxing being fairly even.

In the last round Drennan was on the defensive, making good use of his feet. The sailor, however, had him outfought, and was awarded the decision, which was received with mixed approval by the spectators.

The next bout was a six round featherweight contest between Pte Beale and Pte Kinsella, both of the King's. There was nothing in the first round, both men parrying and clinching without exchanging blows. Things livened up considerably in the next round, Beale getting in lefts on Kinsella's jaw.

The third round was also Beale's. In the succeeding round Kinsella showed some improvement and drove Beale to his knees but the latter quickly regained his balance and had his opponent outfought. The two last rounds left Beale well ahead in points, the fight being declared in his favour.

The next item on the programme was a six round heavyweight contest between Stoker Brown of H.M.S. "Carlisle" and Bdr. Barton, R.G.A.

There was considerable interest evinced in this fight, both men being classed as good boxers. From the commencement it was evident, though, that the soldier was more than a match for his opponent, knocking him to the boards on three occasions in the 2nd round. Brown on each occasion regained his feet and put up a plucky fight, but only the gong saved him. The third round was all in the Barton's favour and again he succeeded. In knocking his opponent down, the sailor, after taking the count of seven, got up again but was immediately knocked out by a right to the jaw.

After the interval, what was expected to be the great fight of the evening took place. This was a fifteen round contest for the lightweight championship of the Colony, and the Gedge Belt, between A. E. Chadwick H.M.S. "Marathon" and Pte. Flynn, King's Regt.

The first round produced little excitement. Although Flynn had the advantage in weight, he did not take advantage of it, Chadwick having slightly the best of the round. The second round saw the sailor fighting hard and giving his opponent some gruelling punishment, knocking him to the boards. Flynn however got up on the count of nine but was once more sent through the ropes, this time taking the count.

Chadwick got the decision.

The fourth fight on the programme was between A. B. Edwards H.M.S. Despatch and Stoker Perkins H.M.S. Submarine.

This fight was short and sweet, Perkins being knocked out within a minute.

New Boys At Eton.

The sons of three eminent men are among the new boys at Eton this term. They are—
The Hon. P. R. L. Beatty, son of Earl Beatty.

M. McKenna, son of the Rt.
Hon. Reginald McKenna.

The Hon. A. R. Primrose, son of Lord Dalmeny, and grandson of Lord Rosebery.

Their names are printed in the School List issued by the Eton College Chronicle.

The Light Aeroplane.

Aeroplane develops fast on the two extremes: on the one hand, engines of enormous power are constructed and gigantic machines are driven at between 200 and 250 miles an hour; on the other light aeroplanes are being driven with engines of motor-cycle capacity at moderate speeds and with a remarkably low consumption of petrol. One of the competitors at Lympne for the greatest distance flown on a gallon of petrol, and after three days the figure stood at 87.5 miles. Over a limited distance a speed had been obtained of 665 miles per hour, while one plane had flown altogether 700 miles and another 50 miles less. It is astonishing that so much progress should have been made in the last twelve months, and there will be some interesting conclusions to be drawn from the meeting about the reliability of light machines, the possibilities of landing on rough ground (because of the moderate "landing speed"), and the use of low-powered engines.

Mammots' Tusks.

Two mammoth tusks, one four feet long and the other a foot long, have been found beneath 20 feet of London clay at the works of the North London Ballast Company, Angel Road, Edmonton, and have been handed over to the local museum. The gift was formally acknowledged by the chairman of the Museum Committee (Mr. Fiecher Thomas) at a meeting of the
"Edmonton District Council."

In a report he states that the tusks evidently belonged to two distinct mammoths. "They are reliable," he states, "to Blaphus primigenius, and belong to the geological period known as the Middle Pleistocene or the last Glacial Age; when glaciers covered the greater part of the country."

According to Sir R. Lyde, the mammoth probably disappeared from the area now known as the British Isles about 12,000 years ago. "The question does not arise whether the mammoth was domesticated, but very likely it was hunted by man, and may have been killed by him."

Court Humour.

"She said she would like to have five minutes with me in the dark,"
said a woman at Acton, referring to a neighbour—Magistrate: And do you know in fear of her?"

Applicant: Yes, now the dark night is coming along.

"I am not a servant; I am a cat'smeat man by profession!" said a man at Marylebone County Court.

"He was trying to emulate Joe Beckett," said a constable of a man charged at Lambeth—"Why not the victor?" asked Mr. Rooth.

"He was fighting an imaginary
fox," said the constable.

"Has he ever given you any money?" asked the clerk at Stratford of a woman who was summoning her husband for desertion.

"Yes," she replied, "a 10s. note on my wedding day."

"My son hit him in self-defence," said a woman at Tower Bridge. Mr. Waddy: How old is your son?—Thirty. Mr. Waddy:
Then I know what you mean by "self-defence." I've learnt a good deal about "self-defence" since I have been a magistrate.

Life With Youth Missed Out.

Youth goes. The first wild ardour of the spirit goes. To the writer, to the poet, youth is the enchanted period, the way of divinity. But Vinevar had never been young. Even in Frankfurt as a little boy Vinevar was not young.
He was old with the experience of his race. And having never been young, as he grew old the thing for which he lived had come to life, so to his friends he seemed younger.

His burning eyes drew forth, their arguments. Life did not disgust him. He knew it for what it was worth. He played the revolution for personal power. "Things pass.
Men pass. Men and women drift down the ages," so said Vinevar, watching the stream of humanity drift over the edge of the world. "He knew that life was in its essence what he chose to make it. And he drew near to its uncertain moods;
bringing to its bitterness his own knowledge of its futility and the meaning of its sorrow. Vinevar and life had nothing left to find out about each other. His aim was to serve his race, no more, no less. He bore to existence no illusion.

Subtly, silently, the treatment of his early days had gnawed at his nature, until hate had blinded him to all the sweetness of human companionship.
He had been brought to bitterness by what ought to have been good and gentle and humane, and the memory of this bringing walked with him until in his soul was the scurf of all the world. He walked as it were in prison dress. The scurf and the chain had become darkened. Across the night he saw an immense blackness into which this and every man was an agent.

Mighty Atoms.

The sun's rays, acting through the vegetable world, build up some of the wandering molecules of carbonic acid, of water, of ammonia,
and of salts, into the fabric of plants.
The plants are devoured by animals,
animals devour one another, man devours both plants and other animals; and hence it is very possible that atoms which once formed an integral part of the busy brain of Julius Caesar may now enter into the composition of Caesar the negro in Alabama, and of Caesar the house-dog in an English homestead.

And thus there is sober truth in the words which Shakespeare puts into the mouth of Hamlet:—
Imperial Caesar, dead and turned to clay,
Might stop a hole to keep the cold
away.

Oh, that that earth, which kept
the world in awe,
Should patch a wall, t' expel winter's flaw.

HUXLEY.

Instead Of One O.B.

The Rev. Dr. Rosslyn Bruce in the Times, says:—"In your biographical column on 'the man of many friends'—Oscar Browning—
the writer touches on the lighter traits of this remarkable character with penetration and delicacy, and I had almost hoped that he would allow himself to quote a playful little number which in its day delighted O.B. very sincerely. His many friends will remember that at a certain period he was much concerned about the development of his physical proportions, and it was then that there appeared the following, which is surely among the neatest bits of our time:—

"O.B.: Oh be obedient
To Nature's stern decrees.
Or else, instead of one O.B.,
You will be too obese."

Henry Ford And The Presidency.

"News comes from Nebraska that Mr. Henry Ford had allowed, at least by silent consent, the inclusion of his name as Progressive candidate at the State Presidential primary elections," says the Times
Washington correspondent. If Mr.
Ford is to be a candidate on the Progressive ticket, there is not the faintest doubt that he could throw both Republican and Democratic parties into dire confusion. His fabulous wealth, the power and influence his immense selling organization could exert if turned to political purposes, and the curious magic his name exerts over a large number of people would unite to make him a commanding figure. It may be that he has no design on the Presidency, but he has no doubt an immense power, which he would stand then, and encourage the movement on his behalf.

HOME ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

LONDON, December 1.

Miss Violet Robertson, Unionist candidate for Stirling, Glasgow, was attacked by hooligans while addressing a meeting in a school-room yesterday evening. She was kicked on the leg and spat upon repeatedly. Miss Robertson is confined to her bed to-day, suffering from bruises and shock.

LONDON, December 1.

The electoral contest, particularly in London and Scotland, is marked by a campaign of rowdism, of which the victims are mostly Liberals and Conservatives who declare that the rowdism is organised by extreme Labourites or Communists. Mr. Hogbin, Liberal, who is fighting Saklatvala, Labour, at North Battersea, has decided to cancel all his meetings and rely upon personal canvassing owing to the way he has been persistently interrupted. Mr. Asquith's brother-in-law, H. J. Tennant, Liberal candidate for Central Glasgow, is now constantly protected by police owing to an incident when he was hustled and robbed of his gold watch and chain at the close of one of his meetings. Sir Robert Horne's meeting at Glasgow yesterday evening, after continuous interruptions, ended with the Labourites standing on chairs and incoherently yelling. Mr. Asquith suffered similar treatment at Paisley, where a body of men carrying a banner inscribed, "Hail Bolshevism Russia" finally took possession of one meeting. Mr. Asquith leaving the platform while the "Red Flag" was lustily sung.

LONDON, December 1.

Premier Massey, who as Dominion delegate for New Zealand to the Empire Conference, has recently drawn Liberal criticism on his head owing to his publicly voicing Protectionist views in the course of the present electoral campaign. In a speech at London yesterday he said that Great Britain would have to tackle the problem of South American competition with British farmers. He said South America could at present beat them every time in the meat industry. When European peace was established Great Britain would have to face greater German competition. He contended that unemployment in Great Britain was due to Free Trade.

REPARATIONS.

PARIS, December 1.

The newspapers are most pleased regarding the unanimous decision of the Reparations Commission. They declare that the Entente is once more cemented. The Oeuvre says that the conciliatory attitude of Sir John Bradbury was particularly valuable in view of the prospect of agreement as regards Tangier and Morocco and the Italo-Spanish flirtation.

It is noteworthy that a semi-official statement says that the question of payments from the Ruhr, mentioned in a cable message dated November 27, was not discussed because there was a tacit mutual agreement to avoid any discussion likely to cause conflict between the different schools of thought regarding methods.

LATER.

In connection with the Reparation Commission's decision it is pointed out that the terms with reference to two proposed committees do not contain the restrictions which M. Poincaré sought to place on the Committee of Experts suggested by Great Britain and which were unacceptable to the United States. Great importance is attached by the Commission to American participation, without which it is believed, at least in British quarters, that the enquiry would be abortive.

All the delegates were most impressed with the urgency of taking steps to check Germany's rush towards financial chaos.

WASHINGTON, December 1. The U.S. Government has informed Mr. James Logan, the American Observer on the Reparations Commission, that it is still unwilling to officially participate in a restricted inquiry as indicated in the scope of investigation of the two committees created, although it may agree to be unofficially represented.

LATER.

One of the committees appointed by the Reparations Commission will investigate means of balancing the budget and stabilising currency and the other will investigate means of valuing or causing to return to Germany her vanished capital.

The significance of to-day's decision lies in the fact that this is the first time since January 17th, when the decision was taken to occupy the Ruhr, that the Reparations Commission has taken a unanimous decision as regards Germany.

A semi-official statement hopes that the unanimity of the Reparations Commission's decision will encourage the United States to send a representative to the Experts' Committees the members of which are to be appointed next week.

The Commission will fix the next payments to be demanded from Germany when the committees have completed their labours.

ITALY AND RUSSIA.

ROME, December 1st.

Signor Mussolini announced in the Chamber that the Fascist Government was not opposed to recognition of the Soviet Government of Russia.

LATER.

Signor Mussolini remarked that a mission from Moscow was at present in Rome. Italy's precise object, with the mission was to establish normal commercial relations, which had reached a favourable stage, were not influenced by political considerations, but they necessarily proceeded slowly. He said he admired the pedantry of the Russians because they were zealous defenders of all the interests of their country. Intellectual relations between the two peoples were excellent and the only European Press sympathetically disposed towards Italy during the Corfu days was the Press of Moscow. Recognition of the Soviet was advantageous to Italy as the Italian Government would thereby have restored the political and diplomatic link with the western nations of the Russian Government, which would reciprocate by granting commercial treaty concessions for raw materials greatly needed in Italy.

ROME, December 1st.

The Chamber has passed decrees bringing into force the preliminary Italo-Russian and Italo-Ukrainian agreements signed in 1921.

U.S. POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, December 1. The Postmaster-General's annual report strongly appeals to American public opinion to sustain the Government's policy in encouraging the use of American ships by assigning them whenever practicable to American mail going abroad.

Charles Baker, the man who escaped from Norwich Prison last June after attacking and seriously injuring Warden Roberts, was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment for stealing a car which he took for a trial run from a Willenden garage on September 11 and later abandoned.

Mothers build Babies!

IT is all right so long as you feed your own baby, and many Mothers who could not feed their little ones have done so by taking Virol. Virol strengthens and builds the Mother, and increases the flow of milk.

But the danger comes with weaning. This is the time when you are building baby's body for life. Most of the ill of childhood are due to the ill-balanced and improper diet that is often substituted for mother's milk. Such a diet is generally deficient in some quantity essential to growth and development. The remarkable properties of Virol and the wonderful manner in which it is assimilated by the youngest and feeblest digestion ensures healthy development, firm flesh, strong bones and teeth, and good colour. The Virol baby is a smiling baby because it is properly nourished.

It has been proved in Hospitals that when children are fed on Virol their power of resistance to disease is increased. Virol is used in more than 3,000 Infant Clinics and Hospitals in Great Britain. Try it.

GRUESOME FIND.

BODY ON KOWLOON HILL-SIDE.

Two cases of suicide were recorded by the police yesterday and both were from the Shamshuipo district. On the hillside near the Kowloon Water works, Sergeant Wynne found the decomposed body of an unknown Chinese male. There was a piece of cloth round the neck, and a little distance away was another part of the rope tied to a tree but detached from the other part. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition. Then at the ground floor of No. 4, New Street, a Chinese fisherman named Tang Tam-ku, (24) was found hanging from the doorway. Her remains were removed to the Mortuary.

CATHEDRAL ORGANIST.

WELCOME DINNER.

After an interval of some 6 years, or less, very rightly and kindly, the Chaplain of St. John's Cathedral, Rev. H. Copley Moyle, Senior Chaplain, invited the members of St. John's Cathedral Choir to a dinner on behalf of a welcome to the new organist of St. John's Cathedral, Mr. Frederick Mason, A.R.C.O., L.T.C.L. Although such a welcome is not unusual on such occasions, the manner in which the function was celebrated was a most excellent success. On a former occasion, some 5 or 6 years ago, while only gentlemen of the choir were present, on this occasion the lady members, eight in number, were also present, the gathering including the men of the choir, the new organist, the retiring organist, Mr. Temple P. Bevan, M.C. and the Senior Chaplain. The dinner was most sumptuous. Grace was said by the Chaplain. The following were present at the table: Rev. Copley Moyle at one end of the table, Mr. Temple Bevan at the other end, Mr. Frederick Mason, Sir Claud Severn, who managed to put in half time during the function, as he had already been invited to Government House, Messrs. L. V. Morgan, Cuthbert, Stevenson, Matheson, the Misses Cooper and the Misses Perkins, Messrs. Annis, Best, Fountain, Williams and two men from the service. The Chaplain during the course of the dinner, spoke welcoming Mr. Mason, and wished him much luck and goodwill, and also mentioned that for the first time in the Colony, they had the pleasure of singing the composition of one of those present, namely Mr. Temple Bevan, their acting retiring organist, who had written the magnificent and Nunc Dimittis, which was specially sung last Sunday evening in his presence at Evensong. The service has been dedicated to The Venerable Archdeacon Bevan, (Mr. Temple Bevan's father) and there is no doubt this young musician will be one of the leading lights in the musical world. Mr. Mason and Mr. Bevan replied to the toast of the Chaplain and all drank to the health of the new organist.

After dinner the members had music, both the new organist and Mr. Temple Bevan being the accompanists for all the music, when practically every male and female member contributed. There is no doubt about it that the whole success of the evening was most enjoyable chiefly because it was a mixed party, and as in a home, only where a wife or a mother is present, such a home is made happy, truly, although among those present, their wives or husbands or sweethearts were not present, the fact that both sexes were participating, the whole evening was most perfect and truly happy, and well one might quote, "Ye are all my friends, not only a wife or husband, but every single male and female member of the church militant, and with such a perfect and harmonious success I am sure such organizations can be made most popular and so induce other ladies and gentlemen who have talent of voice to become members of such a splendid choir as St. John's Cathedral. Lastly, the evening was made all the more lively and happy by the genial presence of Sir Claud Severn who certainly made everyone most happy and cheerful and we trust this very staunch and popular member of St. John's Cathedral choir, may long be spared to continue his activities for many many years. The evening closed with the singing of "The Long Day Closes" by the male voices of the choir, namely, Messrs. Annis, Best, Fountain, Williams, Paul and Sampson. The Chaplain deserves the most cordial thanks of all the members for his generous spirit in having provided them with such an excellent dinner and some three happy hours of social company one with another.

ONE PRESENT.

SERIOUS ARMS CASE.

FILIPINO ARRESTED AT "STAR" FERRY.

B. Maneres, a Filipino water tender on the S.S. "President Taft" was charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton this morning with possession without a permit from the C.S.P. of three Smith and Wesson revolvers. Detective Sub-Inspector W. Shannon informed His Worship that he had been instructed to ask for the case to be committed to the Sessions. In view of a statement made by defendant to the Police, His Worship remanded the case for witnesses from the ship to appear.

It is alleged that at about 9.35 on Saturday night, whilst Sergeant Kelly was on post duty at the Hongkong Star Ferry wharf, he searched defendant who came on the ferry and found the arms on him.

GRAND OPERA.

SUPERB PERFORMANCES.

The Italian Grand Opera Co. is back again and we are tempted to follow the example of H.E. the Governor when referring to his speeches, and say, "you will remember what we said on the last occasion and therefore there is no need for us to add to those eulogiums, and to paint the jolly afresh." The Company returns with additions to its forces that add to improvement. The Conductor conducts instead of conducting and doing brilliant work on the piano-forte as heretofore. The principals are reinforced in the Soprano and tenor sections of its constitution, and the whole, as evidenced by Saturday's performance of Verdi's ever popular "Il Trovatore" is a perfect ensemble, superb lyrical singing, dramatic art and a chorus with a spice of dash in it. Saturday's audience at the Star was very big, it was very enthusiastic, and it gave the proceedings that gala-like atmosphere which Grand Opera conveys. It insisted on encores, and got them. It delayed the performance and it meant to not a few the last ferry to Hongkong. "Il Trovatore" like a Shakespeare play is full of quotations. We enjoyed the familiar but unacknowledged arias, solos and choruses, and hummed them afresh as we ended our happy way homewards.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S SHOW.

There was another well pleased audience at the Star last night when the Italian Opera Company repeated former successes in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci." In the former the singing was unquestionably fine but what, to judge from the applause, the audience enjoyed most of all was the orchestra's splendid rendering of the beautiful and ever popular Intermezzo. "Pagliacci" proved a triumph for Mrs. Amoroso, a charmingly capricious Columbine, and Mr. Gargi, who sang the famous Prologue with great effect.

A FAREWELL.

A welcome was given to the outgoing and incoming members of the R.G.A. Sergeant's Mess, Victoria Barracks, on Saturday, December 1. After dinner, the floor was cleared and dancing and variety was the order of the evening until 12 m.n. Toasts were proposed by Gr. Hall, S.M. Cook, etc. and responses by Q.M.S. Burge for departing members, B.S.M. (I.G.) Godwin for arriving members, E. A. Corns for the Naval friends present and S.M. Dunnett for the Garrison Staff Mess.

Mr. Gr. Hall in rising to propose the health of the guests remarked that the R.G.A. Mess was always Liberty Hall everywhere. He wished that this could be told to those who had just arrived and had not found their way up Seven and Sixpenny Hill. S.M. Dunnett in replying said that there was another Liberty Hall which did not need so much strenuous exercise to find.

The members departing are B.S.M. Williams, Cook, Sergt. Bush, Sergt. Stevens, Q.M.S. (I.G.) L. C. Harmon and Sergt. Holloway. Each of the married members were asked to accept a little present from the Mess in the shape of a silver fruit dish. The single members were the recipients of a silver pocket flask or cigarette case. Q.M.S. Harmon in thanking the members for his flask remark that he would never forget the good time he had spent in Hongkong because there was always a wee drop in the bottle.

Variety turns were given by Mrs. Tatlam, Mrs. Burne and Mrs. Bruce, Mr. Symes, B.S.M. Godwin, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Holland. After a most enjoyable evening a close was drawn on the proceedings by singing Old Lang Syne.

ANOTHER WIN FOR THE CLUB.

On Saturday the Club met a team from H. M. Submarines on the Club Ground defeating them by 14 (5 points) to 10. Rugby was played a hard game throughout, scored the Club after in the first half, Adams falling to convert.

Towards the end of the second half play which had been a little slow brightened up, both packs working hard. No further score resulted however. Bell was the outstanding player on the Naval side.

It is interesting to note that the Club have won every match this season and have an excellent chance of winning the Cup back from the Navy who have been for several years.

FOOTBALL

SATURDAY'S GAMES.

KING'S STILL UNBEATEN.

The "King's" farewell match against the Rest of the Colony drew a big crowd to the Sookun-poo "A" ground on Saturday afternoon when the regiment succeeded in maintaining its unbeaten record in Hongkong, the result being a draw of two goals all. The soldiers began with ten men as Lieut. Jones, their centre forward, did not turn up and at one stage, through Williams sustaining a temporary injury, they were only playing nine. If this had not been so the King's would have had an easy victory as the combination and a good deal of the individual play of the Rest was rather weak. The play was somewhat better in the second half than in the first and there was an exciting tussle for the odd goal which never came. The teams were—

King's—Holland, Wynne and Williams; Newton, Hodgson and Jones; Burnett, Williams Hart Dyer and Beesley.

The Rest—Angus; Wheeler and Bishop; Blair, Stewart and Lelliott; Mason, Castledine, Johnson, Bezz and Simpson.

Referee: Mr. Smith. The King's Reserves also kept their end up on Saturday by defeating the "Titania" by one goal to nil. Thus they also preserve their unbeaten record. An interesting game between South China "B" and the "Tamar" Reserves left the score sheet blank but the Sacred Heart managed to beat St. Joseph's by two goals to one. South China "A" beat the Club Reserves in a fast and clever game by three clear goals.

Saturday's results at a glance follow—

King's 1, Titania 0
Tamar 0, So. China "B" 0
Sacred Heart 2, St. Joseph's 1

TAIKOO v. "EMPEROR OF AUSTRALIA."

Teams from Taikoo Dockyard and the "Emperor of Australia" will play to-morrow evening on the ground of the Hongkong Football Club (kindly granted for the occasion) kick-off 4.45 p.m.

The following "noted stars" will turn out from the Dockyard: S. Hope, Port Glasgow Athletic; J. Whyte, Third Lanark; J. Russell, Celtic; R. Grey, Greenock Morton; J. Stewart Club; E. Moore, Club; R. Bell, Queen's Park; A. Ferguson, Motherwell; R. K. Duncan, Greenock Morton; J. Ashcroft, Bolton Wanderers; G. Angus, Club.

Mr. J. McCubbin will referee the game and the line-up will be Mr. F. W. Ramsay of Taikoo Dockyard and Mr. D. Smith, Chief Engineer, "Emperor of Australia."

THE GYMKHANA.

MR. SOARES WINS THE CHAMPIONS.

[BY ARGUS.]

The extra gymkhana, on Saturday, attracted a record crowd to witness some of the finest finishes ever seen on the local course. In the first event eight faced the starter, Olive Leaf, Mr. Carroll's nomination, being a warm favourite with Mopoke, Mr. Matcham in the saddle, a good second in demand. Skylight caused a lot of trouble at the post, barging across the field time and again. Eventually to a good start, Mr. Soares, on Olive Leaf, set the pace, followed by Fire, King and Mopoke. As the field turned into the straight, Olive Leaf was still ahead, but was passed by Mopoke at the distance post, where Skylight made his run and won by a bare length.

The second event attracted six, of which Strathfarrar was a warm favourite. To a very indifferent start, Mr. Zellensky jumped out with a length's lead from Country Mouse, and, making all the running, won handily by six lengths (official verdict). Speckled Mouse and his stable companion filling the places. Only five started in the St. Andrew's Quail. At the start, Ivy Leaf and Kukubarra came into collision after the flag dropped but Mr. Soares soon took his mount to the van and led until the half mile post was passed the second time, when Pencastle and Clover Leaf were in the van. Turning into the straight, Clover Leaf took the lead, followed by Pencastle and Yellow River, in which order they finished. Yellow River was a firm favourite to win and place. In the fourth event, Mr. Soares had an easy ride on Orient Dabla, his only opponent being Drake, who refused to gallop after half the distance had been covered. In the fifth race, Mr. Matcham, after one of the worst starts of the meeting in which Roman Sparrow gained a big advantage, got up in time to win handily by 2½ lengths. Mr. Sewell, on Chessman (with a martingale) was a lucky third, with Finvoy a close fourth.

In the next event Captain Neville had an exercise gallop on Rivergrass in beating his sole opponent Laurel Leaf, ridden by Mr. Zellensky. The final race, the Champions, attracted six starters, of which Ramsbury was a firm favourite, with Fern Leaf second in demand. Clover Leaf and Starland set the pace for six furlongs, when Ramsbury and Fern Leaf went to the front. These two raced together to the home bend when Ramsbury had a clear lead of two lengths. At this stage Mr. Zellensky drew his whip and his mount swung right across the course, allowing Fern Leaf, who came again, to get up in time to win by a short head.

THE FLAME

OF LIFE

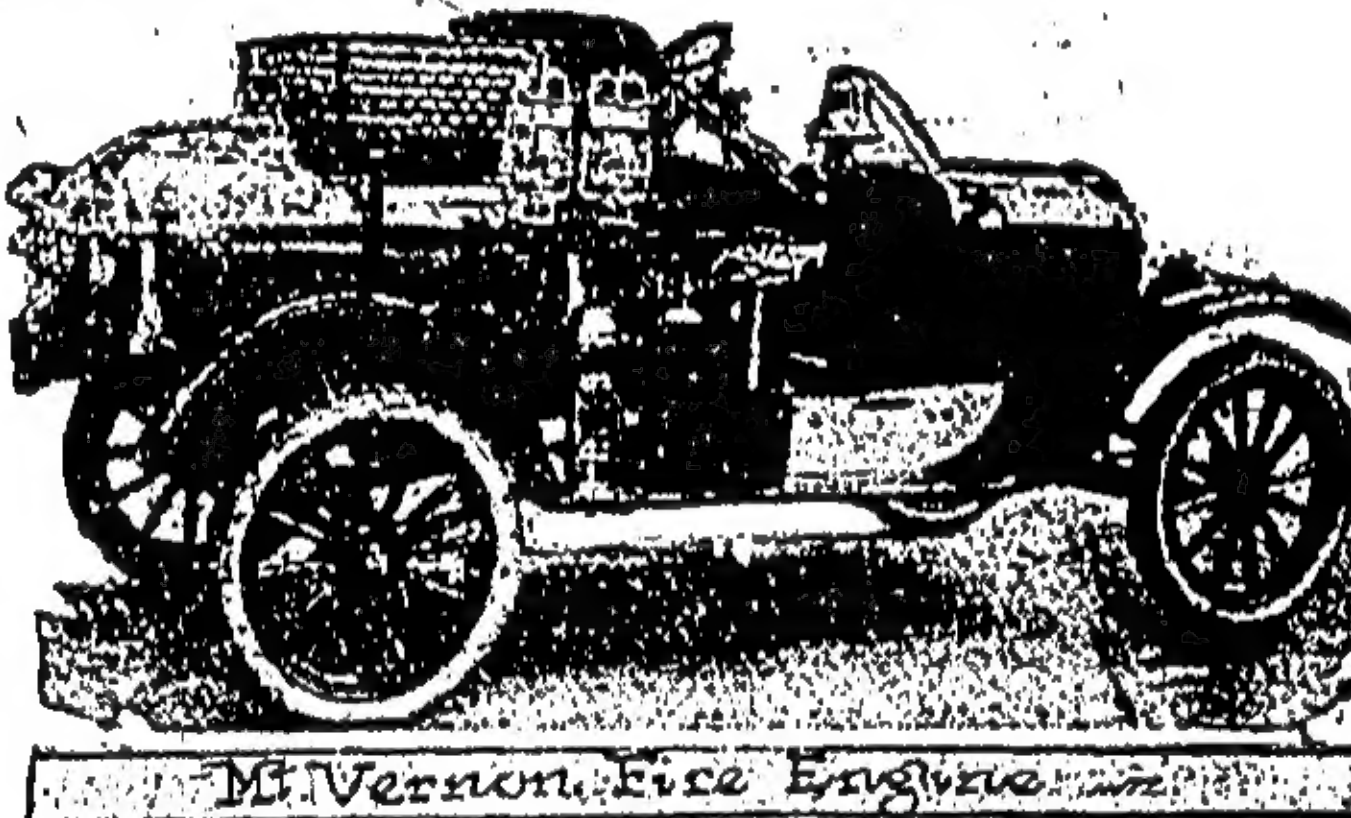

Lord Leigh.

Lord Leigh, of England, and Miss Marie Campbell, New York society girl, have been married in the famous St. Margaret's Church, in London, in the presence of a fashionable congregation.

Peter Pan and Laddie Buck.

Two dogs, recent gifts of friends to President Calvin Coolidge, have reached the White House Kennels. They are "Peter Pan," a full-blooded fox terrier, and "Laddie Buck," an Airedale, half-brother to the late President Harding's famous dog.

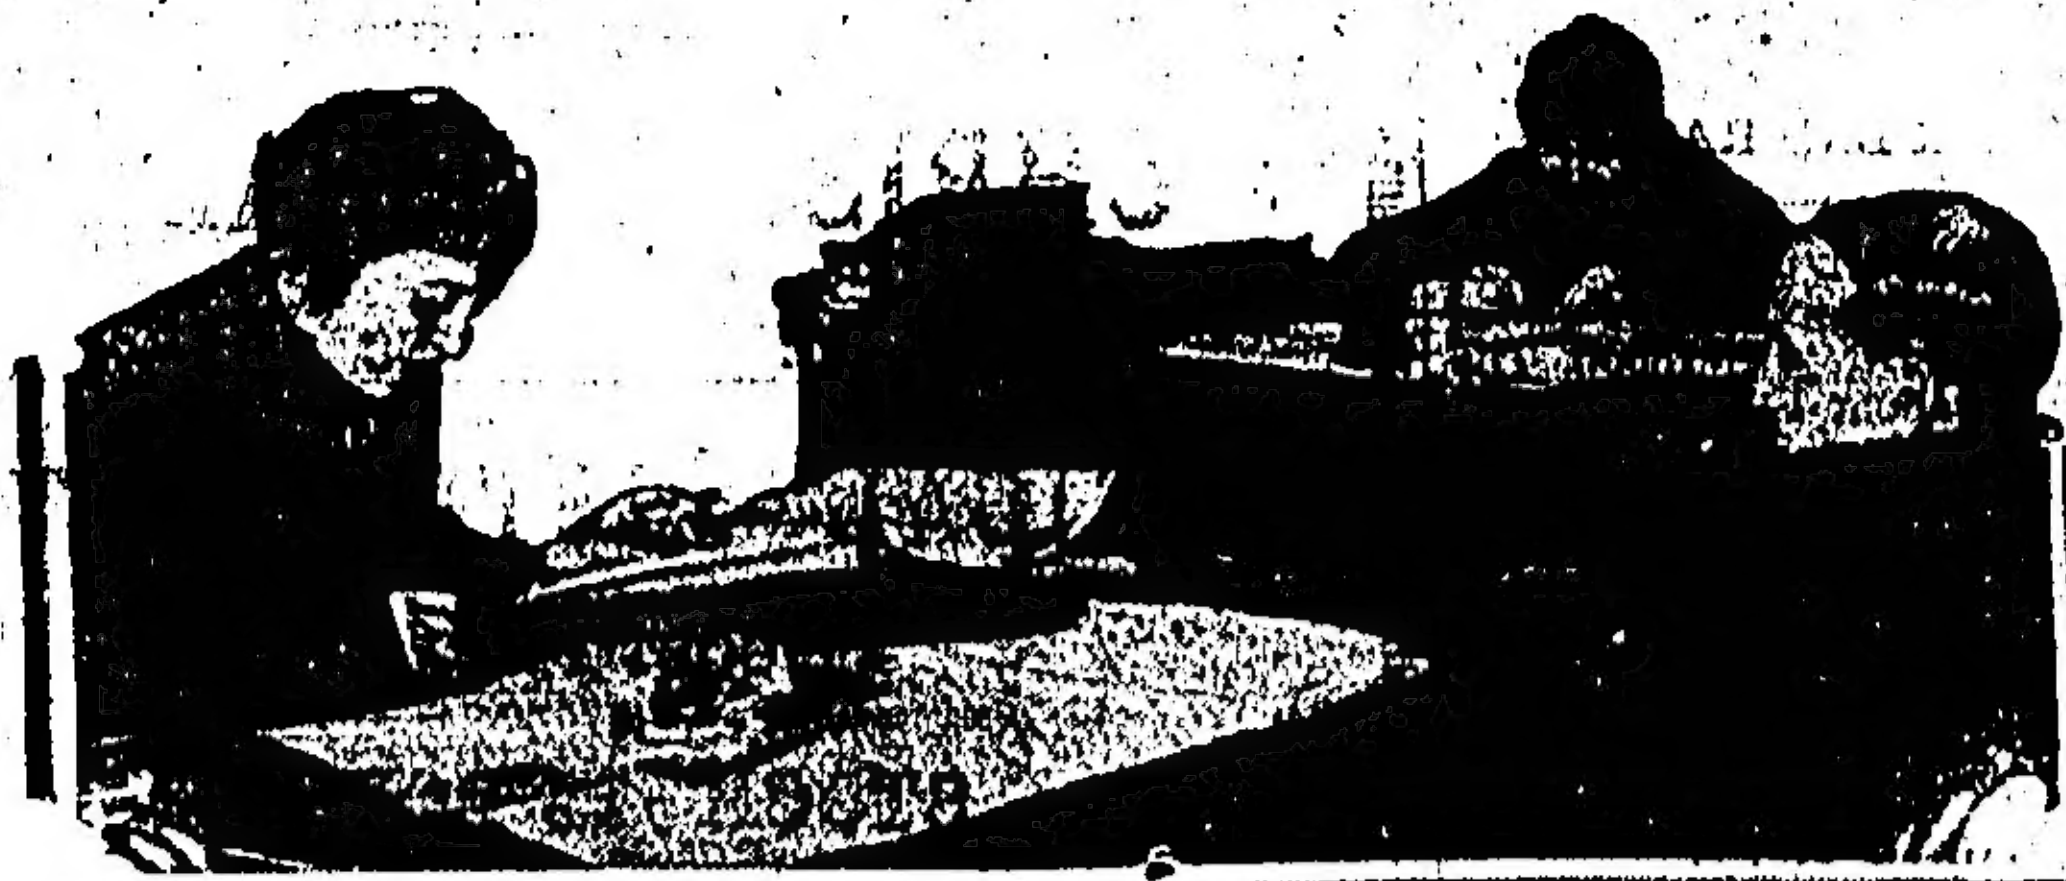

Mount Vernon Fire Engine.

When Henry Ford visited Mount Vernon, George Washington Virginia estate, he saw no signs of fire protection for the historic structure, so he presented it with a motor-driven chemical engine. Mount Vernon, however is well protected against fire, but the hose and pipes are concealed behind walls and in out-buildings, so as to keep the old mansion looking exactly as it did in Washington's day. The motor-driven apparatus will be used for fires on the outskirts of the estate and in such buildings as are out of reach of the present system.

Above is shown the wreckage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad train that plunged through a bridge and into the swollen waters of Cole Creek, near Casper. Thirty-five persons were drowned and many injured.

Soviet woman, Prosecuting Attorney.

Women are playing a very important part in the political life of Soviet Russia, holding many public offices and exerting the fullest power in every instance. In the above photograph a woman who holds office as Prosecuting Attorney is shown examining a member of the bourgeoisie.

Rear Admiral William A. Moffatt.

Rear Admiral William A. Moffatt, Chief of the United States Naval Air Forces, made the return flight from St. Louis to Lakehurst, N. J., in the ZR-1, the world's biggest dirigible. He declared the ZR-3, a slightly larger Zepplin, being built for the United States in Germany, would be used for a two-day mail service between London New York, America having pledged herself to the Allies not to use the aircraft for war purposes when the Allies permitted Germany to build it for the Navy.

Governor Warren T. McCray.

Governor Warren T. McCray, of Indiana, whose financial difficulties have widened to include national politics, now faces ouster proceedings as a result of the alleged use of State money for private financing. There have been persistent rumours, though denied, that President Coolidge feels the Governor's financial dealings may have an effect on the Republican party. More than 180 banks are involved for a sum around $3,000,000.

Senator Magnus Johnson.

In an interview in United States, Senator Magnus Johnson, dirt farmer from Minnesota, announced that he would take the stump against both Republican and Democratic nominees for the Presidency if they are reactionaries.

New York Giants.

Here is the first group picture of the New York Giants of 1923, winners, for the third consecutive year, of the National League pennant and contenders against the New York Americans for the world's championship.

Zev beating Papyrus.

Prince and Princess Renfrew.

Wearing what greatly resembled a Mexican sombrero, "Baron Renfrew," who is the Prince of Wales when he is back in Merrie England presented the gold statue of a bucking horse to Pete Vandermere, winner of the Bucking Horse Championship of Canada, at the Calgary (Alberta) Stampede. The presentation was made at the EP Ranch of the Prince, at High River, where the Prince had been spending a vacation. "I'm glad you won it, Pete, and hope you will win it again in the future," said the Prince.

E.A. McDonnell and Freddie Thompson.

Freddie G. Thompson, the strange combination of masculine and feminine, has been freed by a jury on the charge of murdering Richard C. Tesmer, who was shot down by a highwayman in his wife's presence. Thompson appeared in court in satin trousers and open shirtwaist, with his hair done up like a woman's and with rouge on his face. He was angry because the Court refused to permit him to wear woman's garb, which he had worn for years. He talks like a woman, acts like a woman and wants to be considered a woman. For years he had lived with his "husband" as a "wife."

Jennie Thell and Mary Ochocka.

Cherished plans for a romantic elopement came to naught when Jennie Thell 17, and Mary Ochocka, 18, were taken off a train with Chester Anderson, 20, and Roy Alken, 19, and held for their parents, who failed to consent to their wedding.
